I am God

I am appears 300 times in the bible. From Genesis 15: 1 – Revelation 22: 16.

Who is God? This question drives much of human history, and is a driving force throughout the Bible. After the fall of man in Genesis, mankind no longer had direct access to God, and even the people of Israel only knew certain aspects of their Creator. In Exodus, God states His own name for the first time, God said to Moses, 'I AM WHO I AM.' And He said, say this to the people of Israel, I AM has sent me to you. Exodus 3:14....

The name of I AM is how God chose to introduce himself, becoming so sacred that in Judaism, the name is not to be spoken. The significance of God's self-given name encompasses all that He is, and how we are to relate to Him.

The first five books Bible, called the Pentateuch, are historically attributed to Moses. In context, the introduction of the name I AM comes early in Exodus. The Israelites had been in bondage in Egypt for four centuries. Near the end of this time, Moses fled Egypt and lived in Midian for forty years when God came to him and spoke through a burning bush. Moses asks God for His name, so he will have an answer when the people of Israel ask. God's answer is translated as, I AM WHO I AM ... tell them I AM has sent me to you.

Prior to this moment with Moses, the Israelites called their God, Elohim or El or El Shaddai, often translated as God Almighty. When God gives a name for His people to call Him, it conveys His dominion over all things, the source of His power, and His eternal nature, I AM. He is the self-sufficient, self-sustaining God who was, who is, and who will be.

The Hebrew scribes were very careful, to neither say aloud, nor fully spell out the holy and sacred name of God. Instead, they would put it in all capital letters, and say Adonai. They put the vowels of Adonai into the consonants of Yaweh to get YAHOWAH, which English Christians translated into Jehovah. Today, any time a translator wants to acknowledge where YHWH is in the original Hebrew text, they use the word LORD in all capital letters.

Isaiah 8:1,....Then the LORD said to me, take a large tablet and write on it in common characters....

Psalms 149:1,....Praise the LORD! Sing to the Lord a new song, his praise in the assembly of the godly...

Proverbs 21:3,....To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice....

Perhaps the most significant use of the name I AM in the Bible comes from Jesus Christ. The religious leaders would often try to catch Jesus in heresy, in a lie, or blaspheming so they could be rid of him.

In John 8, the Jewish people challenged his authority, and they brought up Abraham. Jesus tells them how glad Abraham is to see the day of the Lord. When asked by the crowd how He speaks as if He knows Abraham, Jesus said to them, Truly, truly I say to you, before Abraham was, I am, John 8:58...

While the original statement in the Book of John comes to us in Greek, the context does indicate that Jesus is invoking the divine name of God. First, He is claiming to Abraham, a feat rather difficult for an ordinary man. Second, the Jewish people reacted to this statement by trying to stone Jesus, as described in:

Leviticus 24:15-16,.... And speak to the people of Israel, saying, Who ever curses his God shall bear his sin. Whoever blasphemes the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death. All the congregation shall stone him. The sojourner as well as the native, when he blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death...

The Jewish people took this law seriously and reacted to Christ invoking I AM by trying to carry out the punishment of the Levitical law. To them it was blasphemy, as Christ took the Divine name for Himself.

Understanding the weight and power of the name, I AM WHO I AM is important for today's Christian to see the complexity of who God is. He is all-encompassing and self-sufficient. It is a name above names, one that reminds the believer that God is in control, and that He sees His children. It also affirms the identity of the Savior as the Son of God. It can be easy in the struggles of everyday life to lose sight of the majesty and holiness of God, but meditating on the name that He gave Himself, and all that it represents, can help put our time on earth into perspective. God is infinite, and He is sovereign over our lives, He Is Who He Is.

Following, are some of the scriptures in the bible that represent God himself as the I am, there are many more scriptures that pertain to God as the I am, but these are direct implications of that statement.

God wants to assure his children that he would become what they would need Him to become. In using the words, I AM THAT I AM, God used an expression to reveal to us a promise and a pledge found in His name.

The words, I AM THAT I AM, which should more accurately be translated, I will be what I will be, or as it is translated, I will become whatsoever I may become. This expression is an expression that has a meaning that cannot be understood by the wickedness of this world.

By using the translation, I will become whatsoever I may become, we see the relationship of this phrase to God. They both use the word, which was God's way of assuring and pledging to mankind that God would become whatever they needed Him to become.

When God provided the promise that He would become what they would need Him to become it means that he would become our deliverer. This promise found in the name of God is extended to all of mankind. God will become what they need Him to become, and that is the one that provides for the plan of salvation, that will bring humanity back into harmony with Him. In the case of the church, God will be all that we need to make our calling and election sure.

The aim of all ministry is the advancement and joy of our faith, to the glory of God.

Philippians 1: 19 – 26,....according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed....and being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue....

Preaching is one means to that end, and therefore when we teach or preach, we look for things that will stir up our hearts and mind, so as to trust God with all your heart.

Psalms 9: 10,....and those who know your name will put their trust in you, for you Lord, have not forsaken those who seek you....

Those who believe in and know God's name will trust him. The Lord will strengthen our confidence in him, so that in our life together with him, we might help others know the name and power of God. Those who truly know God's name will put their trust in him.

Matthew 1: 21,.... You shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins

Knowing the name of God will help us trust him with our daily affairs and with our eternal destinies. And when the Son of God came into the world, his name was not left to chance.

Now there is a big difference between us and God. In naming someone, we do not have the power or the authority to make the person fit the name. But God has the right, and the power to allow anyone that he names to become what that name implies. The names that he gives is a sure indicator of the destiny of those he names.

He chooses names for the sake of revealing things about himself that will deepen our love for him and enlarge our admiration and strengthen our faith.

So, our prayer is that the message of God's word will open our eyes to his glory, and enlarge our acquaintance with his magnificent character, and fan the flames of our love, and strengthen every fiber of our faith. Our hope is in the word of God.

Revelation 3: 12,....He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will not go out from it anymore, and I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God, and my new name....

So here is why we must spend a lot of time meditating on the word of God. What does it mean when you ask your God, Who are you? and he answers, I AM WHO I AM? I hope you can begin to feel how important these words are. There are not any words more important than these, because these words are true. The more you ponder them, the more awesome they become.

Let us pray.

If anyone has any questions, comments or would just like to discuss any of the scriptures, feel free to call, text or email me. Keep praying for each other and all the God lays upon your heart. Hope to see everyone soon. God Bless.
